

Symboles

Filled circle represent the initial state labeled with its name

A circle with smaller circle inside represent the final state labeled with its name

Rounded Rectangle represent a state and labeled with its name

A solid line arrow connecting between states represents a transition between states, labeled with an event name (event) that triggers the transition and may include a condition within square brackets [], specifying when the transition occurs.

